

European Funding opportunities for the Caribbean and South America (by M. Cremer, Erfgoed Nederland)

EuropeAid: is more focused on development and on financial and economic assistance in EU directives. There are grants for activities under programs of the Commission and for operating grants. See below for info:

These are the most interesting sites and grant opportunities that I now can think of. For a project with focus on research, you can also think of the 7th Framework Program, there are more and more possibilities to consider when you zoom in on a special topic or theme.
